RE: State Attorney's Office Investigation

Dear Mr. McNabb:

As you know, this office conducted an investigation of a matter referred to us by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. On June 12, 2013, you provided testimony to State Attorney's Office investigators pursuant to an Investigative Subpoena. The testimony you provided was untruthful. The testimony you provided contradicted two other witnesses in the case. Additionally, when offered the opportunity to take a polygraph examination, you refused to submit to the exam.

The honesty and integrity of a law enforcement officer are essential in the prosecution of a criminal case. Our office must be able to vouch for the credibility of the officers who testify on behalf of the State of Florida. As the result of your untrue testimony to my investigators, this office will no longer use you as a witness. Please keep this in mind should you consider applying for a law enforcement position with another agency.

Sincerely,

JERRY HILL
State Attorney
